

Data protection

Medical Informatics in Switzerland is highly protective of your personal data. We endeavour to keep to the policies of Swiss data protection. For this reason we would like to inform users of our website about the use of their data and which information will be saved.

This website is meant exclusively for Switzerland, and thus this data protection declaration is based on the national law on data protection from June the 19th 1992 (effective date March 1st 2019).

We are not permitted to use your data for other purposes than those legally allowed and those stated here.

Responsibility

Unless otherwise declared, Medical Informatics is responsible for all data use described here. If you have any questions concerning the use of your data, you can contact us via telephone or e-mail.

Handling your data

We primarily handle that personal data that you give us when you register via our website. Your details, which you give us via the registration formula on our website or via another route, will be used for said purposes and the following communication.

As far as it is permitted, we will also accrue data from publicly available sources (e.g. the internet). In the process of registration we handle the following categories of personal details.

- Name
- Year of birth
- Postcode
- E-mail
- Phone number
- Data on work experience
- Name of the company and institution
- Postcode of company and institution
- IP address

Legal basis for the handling of your personal data

We use your data primarily on the basis of your consent. Your consent is always voluntary after having received sufficient information. Please note that you are at any time able to revoke your permission without reason. The revocation will not affect you negatively. As far as is permitted we also gain information about you from publicly available sources (e.g. internet). Further bases for the dealing with your personal data can result from legal obligations or due to our prevailing private interest.

Purpose for the handling of your personal data

We handle your data primarily in order to create a network of resources for hospitals and care institutions in need. Added to that we use your data

- For the communication with you
- In order to mediate the contact with hospitals and care institutions

Length of time your data will be saved

We will keep your data for as long as the purpose needs it. As soon as that is no longer the case, your personal data will be deleted. It is possible that your data will be kept for the time in which claims can be made against Medical Informatics (during the legal period of limitation), and as long as we are legally obliged to do so, or prevailing interests force us to do so (e.g. for proof and documentation).

Disclosure or your personal data

We do not disclose your data to third parties. Various hospitals and care institutions in Switzerland are in contact with us. Your personal details will only be given to them after your voluntary agreement. There will be no transfer of data outside of Switzerland.

Analytic tools

The website uses the webanalytics service Fathom Analytics. Fathom does not use 'Cookies' and does not save any of your data.

Data security

We take appropriate technical and organisational safety measures in order to protect your personal data from unauthorised access or misuse, such as directives, schoolings, IT and network solutions, admission controls and restrictions, the encryption of data carriers and transfers, pseudonymisation, controls.

Changes

We reserve the right to adapt this data protection declaration at any time without warning. The version published at any given time on our website is the valid declaration. As long as you are registered on this website, we will inform you about any changes by e-mail or a different appropriate path.
